

Over the past decade, our commitment to design philosophy of aesthetic principle, solar orientation and liveability has gathered momentum and forged a respectable presence in the market place. The small, personal office at Nagy Design has been acknowledged with numerous industry design awards for its creative achievements. An innovative approach breaking into the forefront of trends, materials and technology ultimately gives each client their own unique dream home. Nagy design specialises in small to large contemporary homes, or even personalising your existing home. Other facets of the business venture into retail, commercial and multi residential developments. This diversity enables Nagy design to draw from diverse veins of inspiration.
